FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kyle Schneck Joins Merrimack County Savings Bank as Vice President, Commercial Loan Officer

Kyle Schneck has joined Merrimack County Savings Bank as Vice President, Commercial Loan Officer. Schneck is based out of the Merrimack's Nashua office located at 101 Broad Street, and oversees the Bank's commercial lending efforts in Southern, NH.

"Kyle's expertise and exceptional ability to build relationships is an incredible asset for the commercial lending department and bank as a whole," commented Ed Caron, Executive Vice President, Senior Credit Officer. "He brings drive and enthusiasm to the team. It's a pleasure to welcome him aboard. Kyle will be working with James Gallagher, SVP, Commercial Lending, also in our Nashua office. They share a wonderful synergy that will lead to great things for the Nashua community."

Schneck brings more than eight years of banking experience to his new role. Prior to joining the Merrimack he was Vice President of Business Banking at People's United Bank. Schneck has a Bachelor of Political Science and an M.S. in Kinesiology from the University of New Hampshire, and is completing his M.S. in Community Economic Development at Southern New Hampshire University. He serves on the loan committee for the Mill Cities Community Investment Fund in Nashua, and is part of the 2016 class for Leadership Greater Nashua. Schneck resides in Nashua, NH with his family.
