BERRYDUNN NAMES NEW LEAD FOR THEIR COMMERCIAL PRACTICE

MANCHESTER, New Hampshire – July 2016 – Mike Jurnak, head of BerryDunn's New Hampshire office, has been named the new Practice Leader of the firm's Commercial Business Practice Group. As head of the practice, Mike will lead a team of professionals throughout the firm across a number of industry groups, including manufacturing, hi-tech, hospitality, construction, utilities, and others.

Mike works closely with private commercial companies helping them to create, grow and protect value with financial reporting; financial analysis and benchmarking; merger and acquisition structuring; internal controls and systems development; and strategic planning and accounting services throughout New England. He focuses his efforts on supporting the entrepreneurial spirit of his clients.

Mike has been a CPA since 1987, starting his career with an international accounting firm. He is a successful entrepreneur having started and sold several businesses and has also worked in the private industry sector with a renewable power company which he helped take public in the 90s.
