FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

William Klein Joins MillRiver Wealth Management as Financial Advisor, Assistant Vice President

William (Bill) Klein has joined MillRiver Wealth Management as Financial Advisor and Assistant Vice President. A Chartered Financial Consultant and Certified Retirement Counselor, Klein works with clients in an engaged, professional partnership that focuses on each customer's individual goals and objectives, specializing in retirement planning, financial planning, investment management and insurance. He is based out of MillRiver's Nashua office located inside Merrimack County Savings Bank at 101 Broad Street. Investment products and services are offered through Infinex Investments.

"Bill's expertise and exceptional ability to assist his clients manage their financial assets and plan for future needs is an incredible asset to the MillRiver Wealth Management team," commented Brian Webb, Vice President and Team Leader. "Bill brings a wealth of knowledge, skill and enthusiasm to the company. It is a pleasure to welcome him aboard."

Klein comes to MillRiver with more than 30 years of experience in Financial Services. Prior to joining MillRiver, he spent 14 years with Citizens and Sovereign Bank investment programs. A Certified Retirement Counselor, Klein earned his financial planning designation from the American College, holds a B.S. from University of New Hampshire and an M.S. from Penn State University. In addition to his Financial Planning practice, Bill has trained hundreds of other advisors on increasing financial planning knowledge and skills. For nearly 40 years, Bill has volunteered as a Special Olympics coach, and has served on both the Park and Recreation commission and as the School District Moderator for Merrimack, NH. He is currently the School District Moderator in Bedford, where he lives with his wife.
