EmbroidMe of Nashua Celebrates One-Year Anniversary

Nashua, NH – EmbroidMe of Nashua, located at 345 Amherst Street, is celebrating their one-year anniversary. During the past twelve months EmbroidMe of Nashua has established itself by providing the highest level of customer satisfaction to the Greater Nashua community. EmbroidMe of Nashua boasts a 96% customer satisfaction approval rating. Many customers come back again and again for all of their embroidery, apparel printing and promotional products.

Owners, Sal and Jennifer Calautti, want to mark this momentous milestone by thanking all of their customers for their patronage over the past year. “The past year we have focused our efforts to best serve our customers by providing the highest quality products and services. Our 96% customer satisfaction approval rating is something that we take pride in. We look forward to continuing to provide the highest quality service to the Nashua community for many years to come,” said Sal Calautti.

The Calauttis also recently expanded with the purchase of EmbroidMe of Bedford. This acquisition will allow EmbroidMe of Nashua to offer their customers even faster turn-around time and greater customer service.
